

BCNC offers small class sizes to ensure each student receives individual attention.

Teachers and advisors help each student create their own individualized educational and career plan.

Classes take field trips to local community colleges, museums, career centers, etc.

About BCNC

Founded in 1969, BCNC is the largest nonprofit social service provider for Asian American and Asian immigrant families in the Greater Boston area, supporting over 2,600 children, youth, and adults each year at three locations in Boston and Quincy.

Our mission is to ensure that the children, youth, and families we serve have the resources and supports they need to achieve greater economic success and social well-being.

BCNC believes that families have enormous potential to thrive, and when immigrants are able to participate fully in society and create their own success stories, all of society benefits.
